1. (S/NF/SK) Tasking: Initiative/Monthly follow-up.

2. (S/NF/SK) Session: Source PI; extremely tired. Monitor allowed source to review his last session. This done, the session began in S4 after monitor introduced the word "agenda". Source acquired target immediately.

3. (S/NF/SK) Summary: Two agendas were perceived, (possibly related). Both dealt with domestic, nonmilitary issues:

1) The group was concerned with upheavals or dissatisfaction which may be the prelude to greater unrest or turmoil among a population. The group is seriously concerned, worried, perplexed, annoyed and slightly angry, partly because of their confusion over how to handle the problem; they are not accustomed to things happening outside an orderly plan. The indications of unrest surfaced some time previously as very minor disturbances which were regarded as a passing phase in the target population, but have been growing steadily more acute. The target population is domestic, yet "foreign" and culturally united. They appear to be of Asian/Oriental stock.

2) Spending and resource allocation occupied the other agenda; insufficient funds, funding shortages, etc. The system that provides for funds is in a state of confusion -- it is messed up -- control and accountability is muddled. The group is feeling somewhat under siege at present; several major issues for which they are responsible are working according to their expectations, other chronic problems are not being resolved. Pressure is being placed on the group to fix things but they do not see a clear way out.

These present concerns have occupied the group for some time, probably a few weeks. They anticipate having to deal with these problems for perhaps a few more weeks, but fully expect to resolve current issues and move on to other, future projects or agenda.

4. (S/NF/SK) Feedback: None provided source.
